Shannon Bailey-Gates Joins Pamela Sande & Associates of Hyannis

November 9, 2016, HYANNIS MA ... Pamela Sande, Managing Principal of Pamela Sande & Associates in Hyannis, is pleased to announce that Shannon Bailey-Gates of Sandwich has joined the total HR solutions company as a Marketing & Operations Associate. Shannon's primary responsibilities include developing and coordinating marketing activities and managing the day to day operations of the business.

Shannon has over 15 years of experience in medical office management, including orthopedics and primary care. Most recently, she worked in a community healthcare setting reporting directly to the Chief Medical Officer and working closely with providers. In addition, Shannon has owned her own business selling unique antiques and other items using social media, shows, and other events as a platform for generating sales.

"Shannon brings some excellent skills to Pamela Sande & Associates," said Sande. "She is well known for her entrepreneurial approach to marketing and has great experience using social media for marketing products and services. She is also well known in the community and excellent at building relationships, making her a perfect representative for our company. I am very excited to have Shannon join our organization."

"I am looking forward to being a part of the Pamela Sande & Associates team," said Bailey-Gates. "It is exciting to find an HR company of this caliber located so close to home and serving the local businesses not only on the Cape and Islands, but also throughout Plymouth, the South Shore and Metro South."
